

Birds = Borrelia

In a 2015 study of birds in Northern California, 57 of the 100 birds that carried ticks had Lyme disease. Borrelia bissettii, of European origin, was the most common of the Borrelia species found in these birds.

#lymestats